

EMPLOYMENT LAW

BoisBois lawyers are happy to host the 3rd Employment Conference for employers on Monday 24 May 2010, at the offices of BoisBois. The morning conference will commence at 9.30am to 12.30pm and the afternoon conference 2.00pm to 5.00pm.

The conference will be on disciplinary and grievance procedures, constructive and unfair dismissal, redundancy and compromise agreements.

This is a conference that no employer should miss.

The conference will be delivered by Michael Salter, barrister at Ely Place Chambers and Lindsay Edwards of BoisBois. A profile of Michael is attached.

The cost of the half day conference is £75.00 per person.

To reserve your place on this conference please contact Lindsay Edwards either by telephone on 480480 or by email at lindsay.edwards@boisbois.com.

Michael Salter

LLB (Hons) First Class, BCL (Oxon)
Called October 1999 Inner Temple

Areas of Practice:

Michael appears regularly in the Employment Tribunals as well as the Employment Appeal Tribunal, County Courts, the High Court and has appeared in the Court of Appeal.

He has substantial experience in discrimination litigation, TUPE and related matters as well as unfair/wrongful dismissal and claims under the Working Time Regulations. He covers all stages of employment law from advising on the commencement of proceedings through to representation at tribunal and also, where necessary, advising and representing on appeals.

His advisory work includes claims under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997 and the enforceability of restrictive covenants.

He has represented a diverse range of clients, from individuals to multi-national companies, and has also appeared against a number of local authorities as well as on behalf of a variety of public bodies and organisations.

Appointments:

Kings College London: visiting lecturer in Evidence (2005)
Inner Temple Student Mentor (2007)
Pupil Supervisor (2008)
City Law School: external examiner for Bar Vocational Course (2008-2011)

Lecturing and Publications:

Michael has taught advocacy at the Employment Lawyers Association advocacy workshops, and gives presentations for and on behalf of solicitors firms concerning developments in employment law.

Michael has published widely and has been appointed onto the New Law Journal's expert panel of employment authors. Articles include:

- An Unfair Advantage? - (first published in the New Law Journal 23 May 2008 Vol 158 No 7322 pages 723-724).
- Compensation awarded under the PfHA 1997 - (first published in the New Law Journal 9th May 2008 Vol 158, No. 7320 pages 652-653).
- A Sting in the Tail - problems left by insolvent employers (first published in the New Law Journal 29 February 2008, Vol.158, No.7310, p.320).
- Which Route To Use? (first published in the Solicitors Journal 23 November 2007 Vol.151 No.44).
- Faking It - Beware False Documentation (first published in the New Law Journal 19 October 2007 Vol.157 no.7293 p.1445).
- Finders Keepers (first published in the Solicitors Journal 3 August 2007 vol.157, no.7280 p.960).
- Harassment by Third Parties - whether an employer can be held liable for harassment caused to their employees by third parties (first published in the New Law Journal 6 July 2007 vol.157, no.7280 p.960).

Michael co-authors a weekly column in the UK medical weekly "Pulse" called "Legal Lessons".

Other Information:

Michael can accept instructions under the Direct Public Access scheme. If you wish to instruct him under this scheme you can do so via his personal website: www.michaelsalter.net

Professional Memberships:

Employment Lawyers Association